Introducing
The Rider's Closet
at
Pegasus Therapeutic Riding

The Rider's Closet is a program started by Georgina Bloomberg in August 2006. The program aims to make riding clothes more accessible to therapeutic riding programs, pony clubs, intercollegiate riding programs and riders who are in need.

The Rider's Closet accepts all lightly used riding gear then donates them to anyone who requests the items. All clothing and boots except helmets are accepted.

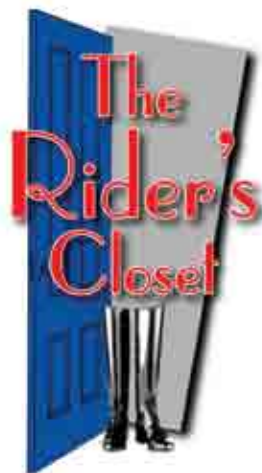

As The Rider's Closet has grown over the past several years, so has Georgina's equestrian career. Due to her expanded travel schedule, she wanted to move The Rider's Closet from a home-based operation to a new location where it could operate on a continuous basis. Familiar with its philanthropic mission and services, Georgina has partnered with Pegasus Therapeutic Riding to bring The Rider's Closet to Pegasus Farm in Brewster, N.Y.

For information about receiving items, making donations or volunteering, contact us as follows:

Request forms are also available on The Rider's Closet web page at pegasustr.org

A 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and a NARHA Premier Accredited Center, Pegasus Therapeutic Riding has provided the therapeutic benefits of horseback riding and other equine-assisted activities to people with special needs in New York and Connecticut since 1975.

Foreword By the FEI President

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington for the 2010 FEI North American Championships for Juniors and Young Riders. We are just a few weeks away from the opening of the Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™ which will bring visitors from all around the globe to this very lovely venue, and many of the young people competing here this week hold a burning ambition to compete at that exalted level of their sport some day.

These important championships, which have been running under FEI rules since 1981, have provided a stepping-stone in the successful careers of many North American champions including Karen O'Connor, Chris Kappler, McLain Ward and Greg Best. No doubt we will witness the talent of more budding stars over the next few days, but not everyone can take home a medal and I urge you, the athletes, to keep your sights firmly fixed on your individual goals no matter what the result.

In this, the FEI Year of Youth, we are more conscious than ever that the future of our sport lies in your hands and I hope that, in line with well-established tradition, you forge life-long friendships with fellow-competitors during this event.

On behalf of the Federation Equestre Internationale, I wish the athletes the very best of luck and the organizers, sponsors, officials, supporters, volunteers and spectators a thoroughly enjoyable championship fixture.

A LETTER FROM THE USEF

On behalf of the United States Equestrian Federation, I would like to welcome you to the 2010 Adequan FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships presented by Gotham North.

We are excited to welcome this prestigious event back to the Kentucky Horse Park. In just two short months, the world will descend upon the Kentucky Horse Park to take part in the 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games. As the premier equestrian venue in the United States, it is an incredible opportunity for Junior and Young riders to experience the thrill of competition on these hallowed grounds. As the multitude of upgrades to the park near completion, riders will be afforded the unique chance to compete in world-class arenas.

These championships play a vital role in developing the riders that will go on to represent their countries in international competition including the Olympic Games, World Cup Finals and the World Equestrian Games. It is a privilege to present these riders with the opportunity to showcase their talents at an international championship, many for the first time.

We cannot thank our sponsors and supporters enough for their continued support of the championships. It is through their valuable contributions that we are able to host these championships and prepare the future generation of riders for international competition.

We would like to also thank all of the volunteers, staff and officials who have worked tirelessly to ensure that this event is a safe, memorable and enjoyable one for all involved.

To all of the competitors: Good luck, be safe and, most importantly, have fun!

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "David J. O'Connor". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear North American Junior & Young Rider Championship Participants:

Welcome back to the Kentucky Horse Park! We are deeply honored that you have chosen to bring the 2010 Adequan FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships presented by Gotham North back again.

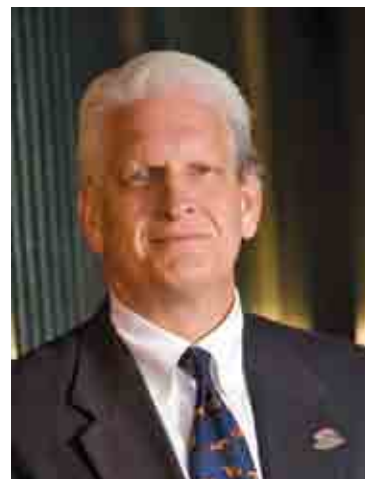

You are here in the midst of our final preparations for the 2010 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games™, and I hope you will enjoy the excitement and get caught-up in the momentum toward the biggest event in United States equestrian history. If you don't have your tickets yet, don't wait much longer! You won't want to miss the finest equestrian competition ever held in our country.

While you're here, I also hope you will take the time to enjoy all that the park has to offer and visit some of the 35 equine organizations headquartered in our National Horse Center, including the USEF.

Now through October 15, we have a world-exclusive, international blockbuster exhibition in our International Museum of the Horse. "A Gift from the Desert: The Art, History and Culture of the Arabian Horse" is a spectacular collection of Arabian horse art and artifacts assembled from museums and private collections around the world. If you don't see it here, you won't see it anywhere else in the world, so don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience the ancient culture of the breed which is the foundation of most of the horses that will be competing in the NAJYRC.

Thank you for returning to the Kentucky Horse Park for the prestigious 2010 Adequan FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships presented by Gotham North, and best wishes for a safe, enjoyable and successful event!

Sincerely,

John Nicholson
Executive Director

Your horse's legs carry you through hours of training, or hours on the trail. What can you do to help their joint health?

 Check legs daily.
Even during routine exercise, a misstep or incorrect shoeing can disrupt the balanced wear-and-repair of their horse's joints. Early signs are subtle, so check legs every ride for joint swelling, heat or hesitation.

 Treat early.
Detecting joint dysfunction before cartilage or bone damage occurs. They want you to help them prolong the life of the performance horse. Ask your veterinarian for the only treatment proven to improve stride length by 98%.

 Reverse joint damage.
Improve joint function by nearly doubling the hyaluronic acid (HA) within 48-hours in the synovial fluid while stimulating cartilage repair. Rely on the intramuscular 7-dose treatment of Adequan® i.m. (polysulfated glycosaminoglycan), the only FDA-approved disease modifying osteoarthritic drug available for equine joints.

 Adequan® i.m.

HISTORY

These championships began in 1974 as an Eventing challenge between the United States and Canada. The inaugural event was called the North American Junior Team Championships and was held in Jokers Hill, Ontario. In 1981 a Dressage championship was added, and the event obtained FEI recognition. Jumping was added in 1982, producing the first full championships, held in Maple Ridge, British Columbia. 1985 marked the first year the championships landed at Howard Simpson's Temple Farm. Known as the "father of the NAJYRC," Simpson graciously hosted the event at Temple Farm 13 more times, more than any other venue in the championship's 35 year history. The championships were officially named the North American Young Riders Championships in 1988. The championships were expanded to officially include a Junior championship in 2006. The discipline of Reining was added to the official schedule in 2008. This year marks only the third time the event has been held at the Kentucky Horse Park.

FEI CODE OF CONDUCT

The Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI) requires all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI's Code of Conduct and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.

1. At all stages during the preparation and training of competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.
2. Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.
3. Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.
4. Every effort must be made to ensure that horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
5. The FEI urges all involved with the sport to attain the highest levels of education in their areas of expertise.

DISCIPLINES OVERVIEW

DRESSAGE

Dressage, derived from the French word “to train”, is believed to be the most graceful and beautiful of the equestrian disciplines. Horse and rider demonstrate their skill and harmony by performing a set pattern of movements. The Dressage “test” demands horses to be responsive, obedient and supple while the rider, with just the slightest of aids, asks for a change of gait, pace or direction. To achieve perfection and the winning score in Dressage competitors must make complex and dramatic maneuvers look effortless.

The Dressage competition will be split into two championship divisions at the NAJYRC. Competitors ages 14-18 will be crowned champions both as individuals and teams in the Junior division by demonstrating their mastery of the Fourth Level movements. While riders 16-21 years of age will half-pass and pirouette their way through Prix St. Georges tests to capture the Young Rider Championship. For each competitor this year’s NAJYRC has been years in the making and all are poised to show that they are the best North American Dressage has to offer.

PLATINUM

EVENTING

Eventing is often considered the most testing of the equestrian sports. Competitors demonstrate their skill over three very different phases, testing the horse and rider's training, knowledge and relationship. It is the triathlon for horses.

On the first day competitors will perform in the Dressage phase where precision and obedience are rewarded through a set pattern of movements. In the Cross Country phase the same horse and rider pair gallop over miles of varying terrain jumping an array of obstacles including banks, ditches, water and combinations. On the final day, competitors return to the ring for the Jumping test where they must demonstrate their agility and technique by leaving the rails up.

At NAJYRC, the Eventing competition is split into Junior and Young Rider sections. In the Junior division competitors ranging from 14-18 years old will compete at the International One Star Level (CCI1*). While the Young Riders, varying in age from 16-21, will contest an International Two Star Event (CCI2*).

JUMPING

Show Jumping is one of the most exhilarating and testing disciplines that equestrian sport offers. In these competitions horse and rider must demonstrate skill, speed and obedience over a series of jumps that will knock down with the slightest rub. Competitors will incur penalties for exceeding the time allowed and knocking down or refusing an obstacle. The winner will be the horse/rider combination that finishes with the lowest total faults. Therefore, Jumping is one of the few sports where a score of zero denotes perfection.

Just as with the Dressage and Eventing competitions, Jumping will be divided into separate divisions of Juniors and Young Riders at this year's NAJYRC. Juniors will test themselves against other 14-18 year old riders over a 1.40m track of intricate roll-backs, combinations, delicate verticals, and scope-testing oxers. While the Young Riders division will not only boost the ages of competitors to 16-21, but also push the rails up to 1.50m. This year's Championships will be hotly contested by the best Junior and Young Rider Jumping riders in North America.

REINING

Reining is designed to show the athletic ability of ranch type horse in the confines of a show arena. In competition contestants are required to run one of ten approved patterns, divided into seven or eight maneuvers, including small slow circles, large fast circles, flying lead changes, 360 degree spins done in place, and the exciting sliding stops that are the hallmark of the reining horse. Each horse automatically begins the required pattern with a score of 70 and  $\frac{1}{2}$ , 1 or  $1\frac{1}{2}$  points are given or taken away for each maneuver. Credit is given for smoothness, finesse, attitude, quickness and authority.

After a smashing success in its inaugural appearance in 2008, the Reining competition is set to heat up the competition once again. The continent's best Young Riders, ages 16-21, will vie for medals in individual and team competition.

SMARTPAK™

(Non-Championship Events)

ENDURANCE

Endurance riding varies in distance of 50 to 100 miles. This event tests both the rider's horsemanship and their knowledge of their horse. The riders go out on "loops" that range from 10 to 25 miles of cross-country terrain, often including natural obstacles such as creeks, ditches and forests. At the end of every loop, horses must complete and pass a vet check. In order to continue, horses must reach a pulse criterion of between 60-68 beats per minute and pass an examination for hydration, gut sounds, lameness, metabolics and overall appearance. The horse and rider then get a rest period, between 30-60 minutes, and continue on their next loop.

This is the third year the North American Young Rider Endurance Ride (NAYRER) has been held as a demonstration event at the NAJYRC. The endurance ride will be offsite in Harrodsburg, KY due to the high quality of trails. The 75-mile CEI** endurance ride will run on Thursday and Best Conditioned Horse judging will take place Friday. The young endurance riders encourage everyone to come and experience this exciting event.

IT'S WHY I RIDE.

ARIAT IS A PROUD SPONSOR
OF THE 2010 GAMES.

FOR SALE: 3 Top FEI Ponies instant blue ribbons!

Tai Calido Stallion Nick x Golden Wind 14'2

CALIDO was a champion for the famous Scandinavian Pony Champion Carina Nevermann Torup. Purchased by his current owner he consistently scored in the mid sixty percentile in Wellington at FEI Pony. Calido is a sweet heart, no stallion attitude here. His offspring in Denmark currently are some of the top ponies on the circuit. Also, he can piaffe and passage magnificently. Easy to sit, easy to ride, easy temperament. He would be a super pony for a petite adult amateur, a child or a breeder.

Day of Diva
FS Don't Worry x Capri Moon 14' 2

THIS flashy 7 year old palomino is an absolute delight. Strong gates with a sweet demeanor. She is ready for the FEI pony ring. Last season in Wellington she was competed at First and Second Level where she was high score champion 74.21%. Diva is just terrific, not only is she out of the famous pony stallion FS Don't Worry, but the top mother line as well in Chontell. She is waiting for the right child to love her and bring her into the ribbons again.

Dornroschen Dressman
I x Amir aka "Sleeping Beauty" 14' 1

THIS 14 year old Bay German Riding Pony of impeccable disposition and gates. Her rider consistently scored in the high 60's in Wellington at FEI Pony. This is a dream pony for any young girl or petite adult amateur. Truly an honor to ride her.
